Guiding Principles for Read Aloud Planning

Prioritize the following when planning for Read Aloud instruction:

| Focus on exploration of the big ideas and themes | Craft open-ended questions to elicit original insights | Strategically insert turn and talks for higher-level thinking questions | Consider the author’s craft and plan for students to discuss how these choices impact meaning |

© Success Academy Charter Schools 2021