ROADMAP
Greatest Planning Challenges: Your Thoughts!

- Finding just-right materials, texts, and time to meet student needs
- Being efficient with planning when there are competing priorities
- Ensuring any/all questions are strategically planned and purposeful
- Planning for different types of thinking and ensuring the lesson is both rigorous and accessible
Guiding Principles for Read Aloud Planning

1: Prioritize the big ideas
2: Plan open-ended questions to elicit original insights
3: Strategically insert turn and talks for higher-level thinking questions
4: Consider the author’s craft and plan for students to discuss how these choices impact meaning

Where do you see Sydney make strategic moves to elicit student thinking?

How is her lesson plan setting her up for success?
One morning, as we settled into our seats, the classroom door opened and the principal came in. She had a girl with her, and she said to us, This is Maya. Maya looked down at the floor. I think I heard her whisper Hello.

We all stared at her. Her coat was open and the clothes beneath it looked old and ragged. Her shoes were spring shoes, not meant for the snow. A strap on one of them had broken.
